

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WFXR

3RD QUARTER 2017

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

Education
Children/Youth
Health/Healthcare
Crime/Law Enforcement
Legal Matters (e.g. court decisions)
Government (National) Government (Local)

Environment
Consumer Issues
Transportation
Community
Business
Cultural Elderly

Technology
Minority Issues
Women's Issues
Employment
Business & Industry

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration	Title of Program	Narrative Description
27.1	Cultural	10:00pm	7/1/17	125 secs.	Evening News	Celebrating a legacy and preserving history. A community group is trying to buy the old Dumas Hotel in Roanoke. It was a cultural hub in the African American community for decades. WFXR's Paris Holmes show us the plans and the memories.
27.1	Consumer Issues	10:00pm	7/2/17	120 secs.	Evening News	Virginia Tech researchers are working to prevent eye injuries caused by fireworks. According to them, more than 2,000 fireworks related injuries are treated in emergency rooms every year. WFXR's Paris Holmes in live in the newsroom tonight. Paris—How is their research helping prevent injuries?
27.1	Public Safety	10:00pm	7/3/17	123 secs.	Evening News	With tomorrow being the 4 th of July, many will be hitting the water and authorities are focusing on safety – especially for boating. As WFXR's Kristen Eskow reports, police have stepped up patrols for the summer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	National Security	6:00am	7/4/17	120 secs.	Morning News	There is renewed tension between the West and North Korea. This after North Korea launched their latest missile into Japanese water. Kim Jung Un says that missile can reach anywhere in the world, increasing fears of a nuclear war on American soil. FOX's Marianne Rafferty has more.
27.1	Education	8:00am	7/5/17	210 secs.	Morning News	We are discussing the importance of workforce readiness in this morning's 60 years of Junior Achievement. The important pillar-focuses on making sure high school graduates have the knowledge and traits they need to either continue their education or enter the workforce.
27.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:00am	7/6/17	64 secs.	Morning News	A deadly shooting in Lynchburg is getting national attention, but many say, it's too early to know if it was a hate crime. According to Lynchburg police, it happened Sunday morning on Rivermount Avenue. The Lynchburg Diversity Center says the victim was Ebony Morgan – a transgender woman.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Community	8:00am	7/7/17	210 secs.	Morning News	Nearly 50 million Americans go hungry each and every day. Roughly 15 million of them are children. Without the efforts of Feeding America Southwest Virginia, countless number of families would go hungry. This month they're collecting one the healthies and most requested item that many of us have in our pantry...peanut butter.
------	-----------	--------	--------	-----------	--------------	---

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Government (Local)	10:00pm	7/8/17	120 secs.	Evening News	A Ku Klux Klan rally met with protestors in Charlottesville. Tonight, around two dozen people are facing charges. The rallies come as city leaders plan to remove a statue that has been the center of heated debates. More than one thousand people packed that park this afternoon. Members of the Loyal White Knights of the KKK got permits to hold that rally. Organizers of the controversial group say they came to show their support for southern heritage. This-after some Charlottesville leaders said they wanted the statue of Confederate General Robert E. Lee removed. Dozens of armed officers moved in using pepper spray and tear gas to disperse the crowd after the rally ended. Several groups rallied against the KKK including member of Black Lives Matter.
------	-----------------------	---------	--------	-----------	--------------	---

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00pm	7/9/17	160 secs.	Evening News	Typically, the warm summer months are all about taking some time to kick back and relax. But that is not the case for leaders of six start-up businesses in the Roanoke Valley. Those entrepreneurs are moving full steam ahead with big plans to expand. In tonight's Virginia at Work, Bill Wadell shows us what's happening in month two of the RAMP program.
27.1	Health	10:00pm	7/10/17	122 secs.	Evening News	This has been the hottest week of the summer so far. People often forget how dangerous the heat can be. So far this year, 19 kids across the country have died in hot cars. WFXR's Lauren Taylor spoke with a child safety advocate at Carilion. And Lauren, you have some tips on how to keep kids safe this summer?

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Employment	6:00am	7/11/17	114 secs.	Morning News	We are constantly hearing complaints about the lack of jobs here in the Commonwealth, but according to state leaders, there are tens of thousands of job openings in Virginia. The reason may surprise you, people aren't trained to do them. But there is a program that can help you get employed without putting you in debt. Our capitol bureau reporter Evanne Armour tells us how this program could work for you.
27.1	Legal Matters	5:00am	7/12/17	119 secs.	Morning News	A controversial construction project may have neighbors and developers going head to head in a courtroom. Last night community members got together to talk about what they want to see happen to the building vacated by the Shenandoah Life Insurance Company. That building and the 17

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	National Security	10:00pm	7/12/17	130 secs.	Evening News	One company in the New River Valley is working to protect the nation's electrical grid. WFXR's Bill Wadell got a look inside. He's live in the studio. Since May, hackers have been targeting computer networks at American Nuclear Facilities. That's according to the FBI and the Department of Homeland Security. Energy Secretary Rick Perry says his department has the resources to protect American interests.
27.1	Education	8:00am	7/13/17	120 secs.	Morning News	Teaching adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities how to live on their own, it's called Katie's Place. Based in Roanoke, they not only offer the services you mentioned but they provide a safe place for them to socialize. Organizers are now offering services at their new location in Lynchburg. We find WFXR's Sophia Borrelli at the place where it all started here in Roanoke. She joins us now live with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Children/Youth	7:00am	7/14/17	210 secs.	Morning News	Science, Technology, Engineering and Math, aka, STEM. Clearly out of my league especially the early in the morning but not for the kids at Achievable Dream Academy in Newport News. They have made the trek to Virginia Tech for a summer workshop at the Biocomplexity Institute at Virginia Tech. they live in dorms for a week and get that first taste of college life, and some love it so much, they decide to apply to Virginia Tech.
27.1	Health	10:00pm	7/14/17	160 secs.	Evening News	What's in the water? The color of the water has some residents confused, others fed up. Some homeowners in Vinton claim their water constantly turns brown without warning and they're afraid to use it. One woman says she's considering moving away because the problem is so bad. WFXR's Paris Holmes is getting answers from Town Officials – new at Ten.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Healthcare	10:00pm	7/16/17	90 secs.	Evening News	In Radford, community members rallied against the senate's plan to overhaul the healthcare system. They created a massive chain in Bissett Park to show just how many people in the 9 th District of Virginia will be without health care if the republican plan passes. WFXR's Eleanor Buckley is live now in the studio.
27.1	Women's Issues	6:00am	7/17/17	170 secs.	Morning News	There's good news and bad news for women in the workplace. The number of female CEO's of Fortune 500 companies is up 50% this year and that may sound like a lot, but it really is not, because overall only about 160 of the 500 CEO's are women. Bill Wadell takes a closer look at the gender gap in this morning's Virginia at Work.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Consumer Issues	5:00am	7/18/17	115 secs.	Morning News	Bridal shops in southwest Virginia are scrambling to find dresses in time for their bride's upcoming weddings. This after dress manufacturer Alfred Angelo Bridal suddenly shut its doors. It's a bride's worst nightmare. The company filed for bankruptcy on Friday, leaving brides-to-be all over the country dressed in a panic. WFXR's Paris Holmes spoke with one bridal shop owner who is helping brides find a new dress.
27.1	Healthcare	10:00pm	7/19/17	106 secs.	Evening News	First tonight, leaders in Washington have a life or death decision to make. The future of healthcare has a Roanoke woman very worried and on edge. She's been fighting an illness for years. Tonight, President Trump is again changing course on healthcare reform. WFXR's Kristen Eskow is live in the newsroom tonight. Kristen, you sat down with a local woman facing huge medical bills. What are her concerns?

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Government (National)	8:00am	7/19/17	210 secs.	Morning News	One local girl is on a mission and she takes her fight all the way to Capitol Hill. The 13-year old from Roanoke is ready to take on Congress to help find a cure for Type-1 Diabetes. For many of us, we can't begin to imagine the hidden struggles diabetic face, which is why it's important to shed light – hopefully raising awareness. So many can go from Type-1 to Type-None. She's sitting down with WFXR's Sophia Borrelli live in studio to share her story.
27.1	Politics	5:00am	7/20/17	95 secs.	Morning News	WFXR News is your election headquarters. The stage is set. Let the debates begin. The two men duking it out for the governor's mansion will go toe to toe for the first time. They will debate this Saturday in Hot Springs. Our Capital Bureau reporter Evanne Armour has a preview of what we can expect.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Health	10:00pm	7/21/16	90 secs	Evening News	An update on the opioid epidemic. Tonight, officers in the New River Valley learning the best ways to try and save lives. Last year 1,100 people died from overdoses in Virginia. Now Attorney General Mark Herring is visiting police departments in southwest Virginia to talk about the crisis. WFXR's Paris Holmes is live in Christiansburg. Paris, where did the Attorney General stop today?
27.1	Crime	10:00pm	7/24/17	90 secs.	Evening News	Local officials are calling a man a hero after he put himself in the middle of a struggle between and officer and one of Roanoke's most wanted. WFXR's Amelia Fabiano spoke with that man today and has our story.
27.1	Elderly	7:00am	7/28/17	115 secs.	Morning News	We have a warning this morning from law enforcement for those who see the elderly as easy targets. The warning comes after an 83-year-old woman was attacked in the parking lot of The Roanoker last weekend. WFXR's Paris Holmes explains.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Children/Youth	10:00pm	7/29/17	90 secs.	Evening News	In Salem, parents are sharing ideas and looking for answers hoping to bring an end to bullying in schools. We first told you earlier this month that student was charged for a bullying incident inside Andrew Lewis Middle School. Bullying is a hot topic for parents and teachers preparing for the new school year in just a few weeks. WFXR's Amelia Fabiano is here with a look at what they discussed tonight.
27.1	Crime	10:00pm	8/1/17	120 secs.	Evening News	Roanoke college is facing questions tonight after police search an office on the college campus. WFXR News has been working on this exclusive story for several days now. Sports Director Garrett Turner join us, and Garrett, what have you uncovered. This search warrant I received from the Salem Courthouse says the Salem Police Department conducted a search and seizure in a Roanoke College coach's office back in June.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Health	10:00pm	8/2/17	150 secs.	Evening News	Some lawmakers are pressuring President Trump to do more about the opioid abuse epidemic. Last year in the Commonwealth, 890 people died in car crashes. But more than 1,400 died of drug overdoses and new numbers from the State shows things are only getting worse. Capital Bureau Reporter Evanne Armour shows us where things stand now.
27.1	Crime	10:00pm	8/5/17	105 secs.	Evening News	Developing news, a fugitive has been spotted in Botetourt County. Take a look at these surveillance photos. Deputies say this is William Roberts using his credit card to buy gas at a convenience store in Botetourt County early this morning. They also say that truck he was seen driving is stolen. Roberts is accused of seriously injuring a woman in Aurora Colorado earlier this week. Authorities say, he then rammed a police cruiser in a chase. He got away and was spotted in the state of Kansas. He was able to get away from those officers as well.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00pm	8/6/17	135 secs.	Evening News	A little advice and go a long way and a good mentor can change your life. That's the goal for leaders of up-and-coming business at the RAMP Business Accelerator. WFXR's Bill Wadell shows us the power of a mentorship in tonight's Virginia at Work.
27.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00am	8/8/17	180 secs.	Morning News	So many neighbors rocked by the latest shooting death. The girl's family still looking for answers. Joining us this morning on the phone to provide some answers in this case is Danville Police Chief Philip Breadroot.
27.1	Law Enforcement	10:00pm	8/7/17	135 secs	Evening News	Clashes with police have departments across the country under the microscope. Tonight, the force in Lynchburg, working to make sure their department does things right and keeps up with national standards. A national agency is in town to review LPD's standards for officer training. Tonight, people who live in Lynchburg were able to give their reviews on the department as well. WFXR's Amelia Fabiano is here with what they should say.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Environment	10:00pm	8/8/17	210 secs	Evening News	New at Ten. Chanting, singing and signs. People voicing their concerns about the Mountain Valley Pipeline and what they say construction would do to the environment in the New River Valley. That crowd was at Radford University this evening. People were given time to share their opinions and concerns with the Department of Environmental Quality. Their comments will go to the State Water Control Board. The project calls for the pipeline to be built through northern Montgomery County.
27.1	Education	7:00am	8/9/17	85 secs.	Morning News	We mentioned there's a shortage of health officials across the nation, but here in the Commonwealth, there's a teacher shortage and the pool of candidate's lack diversity. Capitol Bureau reporter Evanne Armour takes a look at how one group is working to balance it out.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Employment	5:00am	8/11/11	110 secs.	Morning News	A joint commitment to hire veterans is helping to place tens of thousands of our nation's heroes into jobs across much of the Commonwealth. Capitol Bureau reporter Evanne Armour show us how hundreds of companies have come together to make it happen.
27.1	Government (Local)	10:00pm	8/14/17	420 secs.	Evening News	People all across the country are still trying to come to grips with the violent protests. One person was killed yesterday-- and 19 others are recovering from injuries tonight. The disturbing images in Charlottesville hit close to home for many in our area. And tonight, we are learning more about what unfolded yesterday. We now know the name of the woman killed when a car plowed into a crowd of protesters. We are also learning more about the man police say rammed his car into that crowd. 20-year-old Janes Field Junior of Ohio is facing second degree murder charges. And the Feds are launching a Civil Rights Investigation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business & Industry	5:00am	8/16/17	135 secs.	Morning News	Farm life is family life, but family owned farms are becoming few and far between. Some have stood the test of time in large part thanks to hard work and a helping hand from the Commonwealth. Eleanor Buckley explains how a statewide program is keeping the tradition of family owned farms alive for generations to come.
27.1	Community	8:00am	8/18/17	137 secs.	Morning News	Back by popular demand, Crunch Time! An insider's guide to high school football in our area. Jermaine Ferrell and Crunch publisher Carl York is dare I say, Yoked Up for the season to start.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Crime	10:00pm	8/18/17	135 secs.	Evening News	First tonight. The search is on. An inmate on the run – 16 hours after escaping from a southside jail. Tonight, people in Chatham are being told to stay alert. Deputies are still following up on leads. Authorities say, James Jones is an inmate at the Pittsylvania County Jail. Around 6:30 this morning, he escaped. Deputies spent hours searching in the area of Chatham Hall, a boarding school for girls, that jail and the school close to a number of homes. Kids at nearby schools had to stay inside during recess. WFXR's Amelia Fabiano has the latest on the search and how the inmate got away.
27.1	Children/Youth	8:00am	8/21/17	210 secs.	Morning News	Building health and self-esteem. That's the focus for one program in Central Virginia to empower young ladies to run for their dream. The program, Girls on the Run, and they're on the cover of this month's issue of Colors Virginia Magazine. It's a program that began in Charlotte 11 years ago. It started with 13 girls. It's grown to more than a million girls nationwide.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Legal Matters	7:00am	8/22/17	125 secs.	Morning News	The debate over Fishburn Park is far from over. The Roanoke City Council is postponing its vote on selling part of a city park. The debate, whether or not the caretaker's cottage should be public or privately owned. WFXR's Kristen Eskow attended a public hearing on the issue – This morning she's speaking with people on both sides of the debate.
27.1	Legal Matters	7:00am	8/23/17	81 secs.	Morning News	Controversy continues to swirl around the construction of the Mountain Valley Pipeline. Several environmental groups opposing constructions of the Atlantic Coast and Mountain Valley Pipelines brought boxes full of public comments to the Department of Environmental Quality in Richmond, Virginia, urging the D-E-Q to deny a water permit required to begin work on the pipelines.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Minority Issues	6:00am	8/24/17	110 secs.	Morning News	President Trump is doubling down on this promise to build a wall along the Mexican border. Trump hinting at his rally in Arizona that he will shut down the Federal Government if democrats block funding for the boarder wall. Trump promised voters to build the wall to stop illegal immigration. As Emily Thornton reports, some farmers want lawmakers to know they depend on foreign workers to put food on your table.
27.1	Community	10:00pm	8/24/17	78 secs.	Evening News	Tonight, volunteers in our area are getting ready to help. Non-profit organizations are getting supplies together to provide relieve in case the storm's aftermath is devastating. WFXR's Kristen Eskow visited God's Pit Crew today. So, Kristen, how are they getting ready there?
27.1	Immigration	5:00am	8/29/17	95 secs.	Morning News	For the last five days, a group has walked from Charlottesville to Richmond. The message they were sharing along the way, immigrants shouldn't have to live in fear of deportation. Capitol Bureau Reporter Evanne Armour was there as they made it to their finish line.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Consumer Issues	10:00pm	8/29/17	90 secs.	Evening News	Insurance experts are reporting that 8 out of 10 people affected by Hurricane Harvey don't have flood insurance. WFXR's Clay Ostarly asked a local insurance agent how you can best protect your home from water damage.
27.1	Community	10:00pm	8/30/17	96 secs.	Evening News	It's been almost a week since Hurricane Harvey made landfall but the destruction is not done. That's why we here at WFXR News are teaming up with the American Red Cross. Tomorrow we're raising money to help storm victims as Virginia Gives Back.
27.1	Law Enforcement	10:00pm	9/1/17	102 secs.	Evening News	About a third of deadly crashes during Labor Day weekend involve drunk drivers. Local law enforcement agencies are teaming up with State Police to fight drunk driving. Capitol Bureau Reporter Evanne Armour shows us how they are hoping to keep people safe.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Consumer Issues	10:00pm	9/4/17	109 secs.	Evening News	As Texas moves toward recovery, the impact of Hurricane Harvey, now being felt across the country. Major Texas oil pipelines are shut down because of the storm, and that's driving up the cost. The gas prices not strangling wallets just yet...but people are feeling a pinch at the pump. Experts say the surge in prices, comes after oil production in the Gulf was cut by 25% and some pipelines were forced to shut down.
27.1	Safety	10:00pm	9/6/17	125 secs.	Evening News	September is National preparedness month and emergency officials in Virginia say many family don't have the supplies to ride out a big storm. Everyone should have a preparedness kit. But what should go inside, and how much does it all cost. WFXR's Caitlyn Cline is live now in Roanoke with those answers.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Technology	6:00am	9/7/17	107 secs.	Morning News	We are your local election headquarters and imagine if you could quiz yourself to make the right vote for Governor. Well today is that day and it only takes a couple of minutes. Capitol Bureau reporter Evanne Armour shows us how it works.
27.1	Business	10:00pm	9/7/17	80 secs.	Evening News	Amtrak is returning to Roanoke in just a few weeks and tickets went on sale today. WFXR's Lauren Taylor spoke with people who hope the train brings more business downtown.
27.1	Safety	10:00pm	9/8/17	155 secs.	Evening News	Parents concerned after a girl is hit by a car near a middle school. They say the streets near that school aren't safe for kids and they haven't seen any crossing guards. A 12-year-old girl is still recovering tonight after being hit by a car this morning. WFXR's Kristen Eskow spoke with the parents this afternoon. She joins us live near the school. Kristen, what are parents telling you?

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00pm	9/10/17	175 secs.	Evening News	There's a lot of excitement brewing at six local businesses. Tomorrow leaders will unveil big plans for the future that include creating new jobs. WFXR's Bill Wadell shows us what to expect at tomorrow's "RAMP Demo Day" in tonight's Virginia at Work.
27.1	Legal Matters	8:00am	9/12/17	80 secs.	Morning News	Lloyd Lee Welch is expected to plead guilty in Bedford County Court to the murders of the Lyon Sisters who disappeared from a Maryland Mall back in 1975. Sophia Borrelli is live in Bedford County to give us an update on the case.
27.1	Children/Youth	7:00am	9/14/17	180 secs.	Morning News	A parent's biggest fear is to hear these four words..." your child has cancer." It's a deadly nightmare where doctors and researchers alike are working around the clock to find a cure. Until that day, there a four-letter word that helps curb the pain...hope. The month of September is childhood cancer awareness month. Sophia Borrelli spoke with a doctor in our area about the signs and symptoms as well as the hope for that all-important cure.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Consumer Issues	10:00pm	9/14/17	115 secs.	Evening News	Millions of Americans had their personal information stolen after the credit agency Equifax was hacked over the summer. Now people are wanting to know what they can do to keep their identities safe. WFXR's Caitlyn Cline spoke with the Better Business Bureau to find out what you can do right know to prevent identity theft and credit fraud.
27.1	Crime	10:00pm	9/17/17	90 secs.	Evening News	The search is on for a crook in the New River Valley after a pawn store was broken into. We now know several guns are missing after the smash and grab. The call kept police busy for hours today. Authorities say a burglary alarm went off around 6:30 this morning. Officers found a front window smashed out at Pulaski Pawn 'N Coin on West Main Street. WFXR's Caitlyn Cline spoke with neighbors who are glad the ordeal is over.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Education	10:00pm	9/19/17	73 secs.	Evening News	First tonight, the Pulaski County School Board is looking to combine two middle schools, Dublin Middle and Pulaski Middle, to make one school that would house all 6,7 and 8 graders in the county. The board held an open house at Dublin Middle so parents can better understand what students and teachers are dealing with every day. Caitlyn Cline was there and she joins us now live to tell us about this project that could cost millions. Caitlyn?
------	-----------	---------	---------	----------	--------------	--

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Transportation	10:00pm	9/20/17	85 secs.	Evening News	In Botetourt County, more changes are coming to the Exit 150 interchange off Interstate 81. The new roundabout will open overnight Saturday. A new northbound ramp to 81 will be opening. The current northbound ramp to 81 will be closing. Also, the portion of Route 11 south will be closing until December. You can use Gateway Crossing as a detour. With these plans a step closer to becoming a reality, County leaders are looking towards the future. They say they want to bring new businesses, like hotels and restaurants to that interchange. WFXR's Kristen Eskow spoke with businesses who are excited about the possibilities.
27.1	Education	5:00am	9/20/17	131 secs.	Morning News	One of the toughest parts of re-entering society after leaving prison is locking down a job, which is why inmates in Virginia are getting a jump start on their careers. It's all part of a program that offers inmates to earn college credit and learn a trade while serving time. Evanne Armour has the story you will only see on WFXR.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Elderly	8:00am	9/21/17	210 secs.	Morning News	We're discussing aging in place, a term used to describe a person living in the home of their choice, for as long as they are able, as they age. To elaborate and share the misconceptions, we turn to Chris Moore, the owner of Solid Rock Enterprises and Rena Deberry, Director of marketing and Education for Roanoke Regional Home Builders Association.
27.1	Law Enforcement	10:00pm	9/21/17	101 secs.	Evening News	Tonight, dozens gather for a discussion on drugs in Martinsville. Organizers say the problem is now everywhere, including southside. The U.S. Attorney's office for the Western District of Virginia has held panel discussions on drugs throughout Virginia, but this is the first in Martinsville. They say local law enforcement wanted to bring this event to southside because of a significant increase in drug offenses. WFXR's Kristen Eskow spoke officials about possible solutions to the problem.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Education	6:00am	9/27/17	108 secs.	Morning News	In Education Counts, we're taking a look at concerns about education in public schools. Lawmakers, leaders of community organizations, even teachers, rallied on Capitol Hill Tuesday expressing doubts about the Trump Administration's education policies. Our Brie Jackson joins us this morning from Washington to share their concerns.
27.1	Women's Issues	10:00pm	9/27/17	72 secs.	Evening News	Dozens of students walk across Radford University's campus to raise awareness about sexual assault. They were carrying care packages that will be given to victims. WFXR's Kristen Eskow was at the vigil. She joins us live in the newsroom. Kristen, experts say sexual assault is still a big problem on college campuses.
27.1	Housing	5:00am	9/28/17	126 secs.	Morning News	A motorcycle group of veterans are revving up efforts to help other veterans get back on their feet with a project that's receiving a lot of attention. Armed with a small budget and virtually no experience, the Combat Veterans Motorcycle Association rolled up their sleeves and hammered away. WFXR's Caitlyn Cline shares their story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Women's Issues	10:00pm	9/2717

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration	Title or Narrative
Children/Youth	:60, :30	Boys Town Hotline
Crime	:60, :30, :15	Human Trafficking
Public Safety	:30	Road Safety
Environment	:60, :30	Protect the Earth
Elderly	:30	End of Life Conversations
Education	:30	Pathways to Employment/High School Equivalency
Health	:30	Lung Cancer is the #1 Cancer Killer
Cultural	:60, :30, :15	Celebrate Diversity
Financial	:30, :15	Saving for Retirement/House Hunting/Travel
Environment	:60	Reduce Energy Footprint
Community	:60, :30, :15	One in six children in America Struggle with Hunger